

Need help!

Posted by Struggling24 - 11 Oct 2016 02:17

Hi,

So I'm single 22 probably have been masterbating and watching porn since I'm 16 almost every day and I never really believed it was real addiction till recently and I hear all these crazy stories about messing up marriages and stuff and I think maybe for the first time I actually didn't act out for like a week and I just broke it cuz it was so hard and now I realize that I have a real issue and I'm addicted and I really want to stop but I feel like nothing will ever help. I looked at the taphsic Idea and I don't think that will help either any ideas?

Welcome brother

Yo, I started younger than you

No, taphsic isnt down my street or most others on the forum

Hope you get to meet Shlomo24 soon :-)

I'm turning 21 on October 24th. Thanks for the shoutout bro. I have been in 12-step for 2 years and an addict since birth.

Each guy has different things that work for him.

Checkout the handbook. Here's a summary
