

Poem what is your take?

Posted by daledadar.3 - 05 Dec 2016 06:28

I was born in America red white and blue//Jewish American yes but American Jew

In America you can shoot for the stars//As for me I never got far

But I loved the Mid-west just the same//Dreaming one day of "playing the game"

Yiddishkeit had an appeal//It is about what you do and how you feel

But there was also radio movies and TV //Women provided a mystery

I did pretty well in school for a while just same//Trying to play a game

Tehai rasha tehai tzadik so "I'm sooo confused //Perhaps this is called being abused

It is hard to figure out the rules// What is a player who is the fool??

"She likes the way I stare//Pop-culture cruel unfair

ENOUGH!! The shmutz i grew up with is now considered tame

i just cant play this game !
