Hi my name is Eliezer. I'm pretty much like most of u guys struggling with similar issues, except I'm probably half your age, but that really doesn't matter because we are all looking for the same help and answers. I'm officially labeled as a sex addict. I need help. I want help. And I'm going to get help. Because I trust anyone willing to help.

Welcome! As was said. We have all ages and situations. We are here to listen, give chizzuk, and share our experiences. What helped, what didn't. Check out the handbook. Keep posting. You are not alone.

Welcome!

Who labelled you? Yourself? The police?

Read around to see if you fit in the true definition of an addict. If not it's OK, we have tools for the entire spectrum! Keep it up!
