"Up" always gets the tears flowing. I liked Zootopia and Inside Out. Finding Dory was decent. The Kung Fu Pandas are all classics. And the Toy Story series.

The one in Mark'z signature is really good

I like it too!

disclaimer: That one is known to have encouraged animated conversation, which contradicts the platform of this anonymous forum... and may move people off 24hr movies too... which contradicts this thread... so essentially you're Monstah gatecrashing...

Shlomo,

You think we can get GYE to put these o. Their video site? Not surfing on YouTube for totally ridiculous videos that then lead to inappropriate ones is sometimes boring, and is love a good non-triggering movie.

Ain't that illegal?

Anyone got a good list of animated movies that do not have female human characters and no women singing/songs on the soundtrack? Good example is fantastic mr fox. Up. Horton hears a Who (except for the song at the end)
