

MY PATH TO SANITY

Hi Everyone,

I have just registered as a new user since I wanted to really start a new leaf. I have been in and out of GYE for the past 5 years. For the most part I've been a lurker with approximately 70-80 posts in that timeframe. I feel like I can use a new identity which hopefully can inspire a real change within me.

I really don't need any standard introduction packages which are usually sent to newcomers, since I've been here browsing through the forums for years. Before I share my story, I would like to thank a bunch of members for their inspiration and especially cordnoy for his honest down to earth posts which are a great inspiration to all of us.

First a little background about me, I aspire to be a Chassidishe Yingerman in actions and spirit not only in affiliation. I'm currently happily married with kids for close to a decade. I have been introduced to sex and porn when I was a small child of about 10-11 by some classmates. Being that I never had a close personal relationship with anyone, I never shared this with anyone. I was too scared to open up to my Parents about it. I became accustomed (addicted?) to masturbating and occasionally looking at porn. I must end this post now, this is too much sharing for one sitting. I'm afraid if I keep going I'll press the cancel button instead of submit. I will try to keep posting and truckin'.

I can write all night.....

Good idea.

ThereThere used to be a "G" thread, which focuses on gratitude, goals and gains.

I haven't updated my thread since I took sick leave. I was back a while already and popped in to other people's threads, took some advice from Markz to just chill and post.

This past Shabbos was a tough one. I promised myself this Friday night, that I will post either way. I got hit Friday afternoon with such an attack. I wasn't lusting or fantasizing. I didn't want to have sex or see porn. I just wanted to masturbate. (Perhaps it was withdrawal symptoms, I don't know the cause for it.) I promised myself that I will post the outcome either way. I managed to overcome that feeling. I went to the Mikva, got ready for Shabbos. I thought I was done with that test. Friday night when I came home from Shul, Wife hinted that tonight will be fine, It's been over a week. When we got ready for bed, she tells me that her back is hurting and she is extremely tired. She really would like to postpone. I have to give her credit, being the good wife that she is, She offered that she will do it if I really want to. I couldn't took her up on the offer. She is not in the mood and I will be only doing it for my pleasure. As hard as it was for me, I politely turned down and told her that I am fine and really want what's best for her.

(God should forgive me for that lie, ????? ????? ????? ?????) I distracted myself, learned a little and read something until I was so tired and literally falling asleep, so that I shouldn't have time to lay in bed and think/fantasize. During alot of the day, I had a tickling sensation down below, felt like I need to urinate. Was so hard to get it out of my mind. I surrendered to Hashem. I am truly powerless over this. I really want to stop. Please help me.

Sundays are my hardest day every week.

Please have me in mind during your Prayers.

Thank You

Markz, I'm off Movies for Sefira. I don't speak Swahili. Took a few minutes to get the reference. Super how you made it through Friday night and Shabbos. Withdrawal is the pits but it subsides alot with time. Hatzlocha with Sunday b'ezras Hashem.

HHM,

Thanks for your support. I'm looking forward to a great day today with Hashem's help. I woke up early, feeling fine. It definitely helps to write and get it off my chest.

Hatzlacha to you too.
