

Some history about me

Hi I'm a regular guy I'm just turned 21 I was in yeshiva doing well. I kind of always had a pull to these things but always ended up keeping away from them some way or other

Anyway around about 2 years ago I had a little bit of a downfall in my spiritual life caused by some happenings in my life which caused me to fall in this area. At the beginning I didn't even care I was fine with it I knew it was bad but didn't really give it a second thought. but as time went on I realised it was severe and had to be dealt with.

I somehow stopped for 40 days once when someone offered me money for it but then I fell again.

I then grew sick of it a while later and would get depressed every time and promised myself I'd never do it again. But you know how it goes and months later I'm still on it.

Sometimes I stop for a week or two but never more. Until a few days ago I had had enough and looked around the Internet to see what I could do about it. And that's how I came across gye which looks like an amazing program and which I hope beezras Hashem will help me come clean completely and back to a normal happy and fulfilling life!!!

Welcome,

In my opinion, GYE is not a program it's a family, and welcome to the family.

Should be with much ????? ?????.

Welcome continued hatzlacha

Would you consider yourself an addict or not?

What things have you tried so far?

Would you consider yourself an addict or not?

Can someone point me in the direction of how one can determine the answer to this? I've mostly been exposed to substance abuse before and I'm not sure if it's the same criteria

Il don't think you should bother yourself with this question.
