Hi GYE guys. Some of you may remember me. I haven't been on the site in well over a year. I wasn't ready to be on the site anymore. I went through periods of ups and downs. Some very low points. I strengthened my personal relationship with my rebbi and got some professional help. This was all since I stopped using the site. Now I'm done with yeshiva for good. I have a job and am planning to go to school soon. I chose to try out the site again, at least the forums, to have some extra social connection. I realize not all of the site's resources are for everyone but the forums are great. I hope to use this to strengthen my life.
