Hello everyone,

Im still unsure how i stumbled upon GYE's website.. After surfing the web for 15 years I only discovered GYE a few years ago and while I found it interesting i was busy with some thing and didnt really take a proper look but I did download the "1st day of the rest of your life" story and then promptly forgot about it.

Hashem gives everyone what they need at the exact right time though. Today I was cleaning out my downloads folder and started reading the story. And it uplifted me and gave me the confidence to continue in the positive steps that I have taken.
