Hi everyone. I am somewhat new to this forum. My struggles started as single guy learning in yeshiva. It continued through marriage but in a very small way. Now that I am divorced from my wife, I find that the challenge is coming back to me like when I was single. Anyway, I figured that I would join gye, in hopes of controlling this issue.

(I've reseted my something like 1 year sobriety streak and an almost 2 year absence from gye). I am not hiding my fall, just like you. All the best on your journey. One day at a time, one hour a time, 15 minutes at a time, 5 minutes at a time - i am at day 2 and it feels beautiful to be sober today.
