Hi, I'm in Bais Medrash, and feel I should be past this by now. I do really well in Yeshiva (as I don't have access), but when it comes to vacations, I just collapse, and start questioning everything. I need a reboot, and after tonight, found this website and decided to just give it a go.

Welcome!

Why do you feel you should be past this? What about that gemora in Sukkah, the greater a person, the stronger his yetzer?
