

Hello - my name is...

Posted by notgod - 02 Oct 2018 14:39

---

Hello

My name is boruch and I'm a sexaholic.

Thanks to Hashem, the 12 steps of Sexaholics Anonymous, my sponsor and the fellowship of SA I am gratefully sober for just over 3.5 years (for which I can never be sufficiently grateful).

If I can be of any help, I would be pleased to share any of my experience, strength and hope with you.

=====

=====

Re: Hello - my name is...

Posted by moish u.k. - 03 Oct 2018 02:08

---

Nice to meet you.

Well done Boruch.

=====

=====

Re: Hello - my name is...

Posted by i-man - 03 Oct 2018 03:21

---

Welcome!

Its always beneficial to hear from people how the were able to overcome and change themselves please share away.

=====

=====

Re: Hello - my name is...

Posted by notgod - 03 Oct 2018 08:45

---

Sure - I will start with this:

I tried for many years to stop acting out.

Some of the methods I used were:

praying and crying to Hashem, devotedly reading the gye website and chizuk emails etc, employing the taphsic method: fasting (which I hated), paying fines (large ones too!), going to the mikva (sometimes more than once a day - which I hated even more than fasting), phone conferences etc) but I was never successfully clean for long. I had plenty of 14/20/30 day streaks, but always fell in the end.

It wasn't until I walked into a room of fellow addicts and admitted my utter defeat and the unmanageability of my life (step one) and got a sponsor to help me work the 12 steps that I was given the gift of sobriety.

Thank God my life today is completely unrecognizable from before, in all aspects. In particular, I am generally lust free from all forms of pornography and have periods of time of genuine serenity; a gift given to me by Hashem one day at a time.

=====

Re: Hello - my name is...

Posted by notgod - 03 Oct 2018 08:49

---

:blush:Hi Moish

=====