just joined yesterday. already feeling a little better. just cant kick the lusting!!!

Hi Je613,

It's great that you came here seeking help and that you want to change this habit of yours, really shows that you're strong and able to do this. It's great you haven't seen p in a month, but it is still unfortunate you're hooked with these chat lines...

My advice would be to do some introspection and think about what you get from calling these lines and m*.

If you want to talk more, feel free to email me 360gye@gmail.com

Think about when you're most pron to struggle and call the chat lines and m, what led up to those moments? what are you feeling when you call?

but does that feeling come speratically and out of the blue or is there something which usually sparks that feeling? will you get horny just any time anywhere, or it's more common after something transpires/when you're bored?

Welcome.

when you have the urge, isolate it and replace it with positive action.

Davening

Walking.

Reading.

Speaking to a friend.

Visiting relatives etc

Things which can trigger the urge are

Hungry

Angry (resentful)

Lonely

Tired

the initial of these are HALT...and that is what you should do when you have the urge.

If depression is triggering the urge then that requires a deeper assessment of your life circumstances.
