

Starting Again

Posted by Platchik - 13 May 2019 17:18

Hi,

I've been on here quite a few month, never posted yet as I didn't feel comfortable. Over the last 3-4 weeks I've fallen (in battle) numerous times, therefore, it now BE DECLARED AND RESOLVED that we keep our dear friends informed about our upcoming success, IY"H.

Welcome platchik! Sounds like you are not so platchik.....Well, I hope one day to be as 'platchik' as I was at the time of creation. "And G-d created man straight, and they searched for many calculations/reasoning's" (Koheles ???) We were all created very 'platchik', somewhere along the way we messed it up.... we are now trying to come full circle, back to where we started...

New Declaration

Let it be known that I have retracted my signature

I think it needs to be notarized to make it official. The GYE notary signs as 'anonymous' and his commission expires 'not telling you when' and signs in the county of 'somewhere' should be able to sign and notarize without any identification required on your part.

A formal demand will have to be passed to the moderator to delete this offending post. Much too many personal details were disclosed.

It will lead others on Gye to assume their identify is at risk too.

MUST RUSH!

Hi there,

Been off here for the last month or so. Had quite a few nasty falls, slipped a few times and threw myself down some other times (sometimes only till the ground, other times I dug a very deep hole into the ground to go in).... Today, I checked my account and realized I've not been here for 30 days... which is really a shame (that I fell), I could've been up to Level 5 - Giboir Koach

Oisah Devoroi -, instead THIS VERY MINUTE/SECOND we are holding by Level 1 - Ilmolei HaKadosh Baruch Huh Ozroi LO Yochoil Loi - Were it not for G-d's help, Man would not be able to deal with his eivel inclination (a.k.a Yetzer HoRoh). As I finish writing this I come to the realization that I have now have a much deeper experience of this Ma'amar Chaazal....

Please leave your thoughts on this....

We will keep on WINNING and WINNING and WINNING, until you'll all just say "Mr. President, we're just so tired of winning."

(President Donald J. Trump)

We will keep on LOSING and LOSING and LOSING, until we lose our pants."

Well, I guess this part has come true - otherwise we would not even know this site existed. It is now time to start fighting (the right way), winning is up to Hashem just now had a look at some the Tools here on GYE.

Tool 1, STOP. - The way I look at it is that we have already stopped acting-out/lusting by actually coming here, now we need stay on track. The track is filled with all sorts of hurdles, obstacles, bumps and pits, and much much more, but we are already on track.... Imagine s/o says "I will not earn £1,000,000, BECAUSE, the tax man is gonna come and take his share, or, potentially I might in 2 weeks time lose some of it", what would we think of such a person??? "When the going is good - ENJOY IT"...

So too, we have already stopped, be it 1 minute ago, 1 hour, or whenever it is that we stopped, now we can't say "I'm gonna act-out/look at/fantasise about, BECAUSE, the Tax-Man (Evil inclination) will come for his share, or, I might possibly have a slip in the future", How do we think of such a person??? "when the going is good - ENJOY IT", what do we do when it gets rough...???

When the going gets rough, be nice to yourself.

Do something you enjoy...from reading a book, to davening, to exercise, to socialising etc.
