Wake Sleepy up!

Hi everyone! I've been a fan of gye for a long time ,I've decided to join the crew and wake up from my slumber which has been induced on me and us by the decadent society around us. I'm here to give and get chizuk in a Torah sourced way. A Talmid Chacham advised me personaly not to do the 12 steps(thats his personal advice to ME,whoever was advised to use it by Daas Torah ,KOL HAKAVOD!) B"H I've had a streak of clean days, and I feel joining such a chashuva chabura will help out. Hatzlacha to all!

something id like to share:

Bereshis 1:14

AND G-D SAID:LET THERE BE LUMINARIES IN THE EXPANSE OF THE HEAVENS TO DIVIDE BETWEEN THE DAY AND THE NIGHT AND THEY SHALL BE FOR SIGNS AND FOR APPOINTED TIMES AND FOR DAYS AND YEARS.
Sleepy

FOR DAYS:

If time continued in unbroken succession,men would continue in unchanging pattern.A quarrel would be forever,a sorrow would linger,and a discouragement or depression would drag on endlessly.Error would be perpetuated .The advent of a new day is a stimulus to new courage,to new understanding,and to new hope."The days are sheets ;to write in them that which you wish to be remembered for you"(Chovos Halvovos ,Cheshbon 11).Each day we make a new beginning,and we have an opportunity to do better than yesterday."Teach us to count our days"(Tehillim 90:12)to gain more each day,"that we produce a heart (a mind)of wisdom"(ibid.),and the first(highest)of wisdom is the Fear of Hashem"(ibid. 111:10)*It is a paramount function of man to note the passage of time ,in order that his days be utilized properly.*The luminaries remind us of this.Thus"every day I shall Bless You"(ibid. 145:2);we thank Hashem for each additional day that He bestows upon us to enjoy His benefits and to achieve merit of good deeds and wisdom.The dividing of time into days is a contrivance of infinite benefit,and the Creator designed this process with endless cunning and boundless might. The rotation of the earth ,which is the mechanism of dividing time into days ,testifies to the Creator's great Wisdom,Power,and Kindliness.(The Beginning by Rabbi Avigdor Miller ZTL pg 38)

i highlighted some words

have a great day everyone!?

Sleepy my friend..... There is so much to respond to that I'm overwhelmed. First of all, I think that HHM wrote it beautifully. They may well be p'ritzas, and they may well have to answer to Hashem, but they don't have to answer to sg. For years I've judged people in my mind (I still do) and I've come out with a verdict and signed and sealed their fate, but in order for me to do that, I need to have a mindset that I am a power greater then them. Really I'm not. The Torah is a power greater then them, and that's why I wrote that they may have to answer to Hashem, but when I judge I'm assuming the Role of Hashem. Now certainly the Torah has informed me that pritzus behavior is despicable and I should avoid it at all costs, but the Torah did Not tell me to be in charge of that other person who's not dressing fully. By resenting Them, I'm saying that they should cater to me, they're not and that hurts me - result, I get hurt. By judgeing their behavior I'm not thinking about them, I'm rather think about myself and how I can be better - result, I get better.

One other point, you wrote a lot about guilt. I don't think that that guilt has any part in "that mindset" of which you spoke. When I say that the problem is me, I'm not saying that I'm a bad person, what I am saying is that the solution is found in me as well.

If the problem is that other guy/girl, I'll never get better until they correct their problems, but if the problem is in me, I can work on myself and forget the shoushan about them.

i humbly disagree , i think they owe sg(and me)an apology

And that's certainly your prerogative to hang on and want an apology, just as it's my right to try and live my life happy and serene despite what others may do.

Enjoy

You're right, it's not. At least not until you change the last 6 words of the above quote.

Sure sounds like a self-fulfilled prophecy to me...

In rereading your thread I see that you did write that you are trying to be open-minded, mind you no one should be so open-minded that their mind falls out, but open-minded enough to see what has worked for others and to actually honestly try it for onesself before condemning it to the dump of "things that just won't work for me."

Happy sleep.

just a word of chizuk to myself and anyone who cares to hear:

sometimes we dont feel like Davening to Hashem and asking for anything thinking, how can i be so brazen to ask Hashem for anything,look what i have done in the past , im such a rasha ,i dont deserve Hashem to give me anything if i ask , so whats the use trying.

and the antidote to those words of the yetzer hara is as following:

what is Tifila?asking Hashem for Mercy -Rachmanus,(the Gemara says ,What is Tefila , Rachamey-asking for Mercy,Rachmanus) thats exactly what Tefila is , true i did this and that, and what am i worth , but i come before Hashems door and knock , Hashem opens the door and sees little old me, and i beg for Rachmanus for this and for that with expressions of acknowledgement that You Hashem dont owe me anything, but You are the only one who can help me ,Please give me Daas, Help in Teshuva , Selicha, Redeem me from my problems , Grant me livelihood ,Health,etc . etc. Really i wouldnt dare have the audacity to ask You for these things after what i have done to You, but Hashem i need these things so much , and there is no one who can help me ,only you can help , please have Rachmanus on me.... if thats how one would Daven (halevai oyf mir gezugt) he should have no problem to Daven , because we all should be Davening like this even the biggest Tzadikim with all their Torah and good deeds are also asking just for Mercy , so i may also ask for Mercy.

a Kisiva vichasima Tova to all.
