

Enough is Enough

Posted by jackthejew - 04 Jan 2022 18:06

Hi, I'm a 21 year old Yeshiva Bochur. I started with books, magazines, and pictures @ age 13 and moved on to video @ 16. I became trapped in ABDL and hardcore BDSM porn. I've struggled on and off since 16 with porn, but B"H I've been clean from masturbation for over a year and a half.

180!!!

Baruch Hashem! I never could have imagined making it this far.

A HUGE shout out to the following: Hashem Help Me, JoeTYH, AAB, Vekham, and Sleepy for inspiring, encouraging, advising, and supporting me.

I must also grant the most thanks in the most public setting it's possible for with this sort of Parsha to my Rebbi, who was considerate, understanding, and helpful in making the experience of opening up not nearly as hard, painful, or shameful as I thought it would be. To my therapist, for helping me see the struggle and life in general with more clarity, and for giving me the tools to help me grow both as a Yid and as a human. For all those who would either reply or like to reply because I accidentally left them out..

Warning: Spoiler!

Great article in Mishpacha this past week called Letters to my Inner Addict. Relatable for me personally in many ways. Clinical Addict or not.

Long Megilah Alert (Sorry if this reads like a bunk letter)

Wow! 1 Year! I never imagined making it this far. I must thank Hashem for constantly giving me strength and good to serve him though I never deserved it.

I must thank the following:

?????? ?????? ??????: GYE has helped me with guidance, companionship, and advice through the forums, librarys, and support options. So, to ChaimMod, YaakovGYE, DovidGYE, MenachemGYE: I was never sure if you're 1 guy, 4 guys, or 2 guys with 2 heads each, but: No words suffice to thank you for what you've done. May Hashem bless you with long happy, healthy lives to continue your great work.

My therapist has been instrumental in changing my life in so many ways, helping me reexamine, analyze, and work on many areas to make me into a better person, friend, sibling, and son.

My Rebbi, who has been supportive of me with Hadracha and caring throughout it all.

The Relief organization gave me a great refferal to the therapist who was right for me B"H

The Amudim organization has helped me greatly in my journey.

To my friends on the forum:

The Chizzuk, encouragement, and inspiration I take from your corageous posts can't be overstated. Each of you has helped me inestimably. I can't than you enough for all you've done for me. The acceptance and feeling of camraderie is something special and I don't think it exists in many other places on Earth.

There are a few people I'd like to thank in no particular order: (I hope I don't forget anyone and I don't mean it if I do)

Dov was amazing in being there for me in the beginning of my journey, giving me truthful advice in his no-nonsense yet-palpatable way. I also take much inspiration from his posts.

HashemHelpMe has been invaluable for me this year from start to finish with advice, perspective and tips. Always available to help me grow. #mechanchimwhomatter (coming soon as your kid's schools next rayzeit campaign)

Humanbeing. My friend and sparring partner. Keep up the great work! Always great to have a conversation with someone so caring who is well- versed in so many things.

I have gained much perspective and seen innumerable ideas put down so well by the great Vehkam. An inspiration to us all. Keep Inspiring!

Cordnoy does his job so well! He pulls off the tough balancin' act between being a thought-provokin', common sense spittin' mainstay of the forum and postin' approximately 1 post every 253 and a half years explicitly a as a moderator to perfection.

Eerie: A new voice, but already on your way to becoming one of the lights of the forum. Great getting to know you my friend! #mechanchimwithbeards (your local barbershops next campaign?)

[i]The following shoutouts are for guys who for different reasons aren't forum regulars, but whom I feel deserve public recognition as the great guys they are :[Yes, [/i]WHOM

AAB and GP: The group was great. I learned much from your inspiring work and insights.

MD:Great talking with you. Hatzlacha Rabbah with your Parsha

Joetyh: I gained so much from our conversations and meetings. Keep Shteiging!

It's been a wonderful year. I couldn't have done it without your help. Thanks to each and every one of you for all that you've done. I intend to stick around consistently on the forum, but not to log on as often. May we all be Zoche to many years of happy, healthy, clean life with Moshiach here in Yerushalayim Ir Hakodesh! L'Chaim!

Congratulations on your celebration of "one full year of sobriety"! In the name of all team members (yes, we are separate people) I would like to wish you many many more clean days, and Hashem should constantly give you more strength and everything good to serve him!

I also must thank my friends who know me in person from my "public life". If you can see this, and you think you know who I am, that's OK. PLEASE feel free to come over and talk it out. There's help to be had.

Thanks to MR, MS, DR, and the others who've helped me to bring the 2 halves of my life together.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart.
