I will tell more about my problem In my 18 years my duel with the Yetzer will be difficult. I try to think good things, but my mind has bad thoughts of lust when I see men, women, girls, boys I was addicted in porn and masturbation, I am clean without masturbation or porn but feeling dirty is part of me, because of those evil thoughts. I look bad because of the content and it seems that I am in a high degree of sexual depravity help me I want to be different, be a being of light and help others How do I start to have better thoughts?
