

A long walk to.... Nowhere.

Posted by noshimnosh - 29 Oct 2022 21:43

Hi I am a young married man with a few small children, I have had a long past of different struggles and bad to worse habits. In the past couple of months I have been making some real steps to grow in some unhealthy area's. I recently past 90 days of no P & M, and it feels good. But I have a diff issue and idk what to do or what to make of it. I compulsively go on these long walks with no destination in mind. I don't know what I'm looking for and what I expect to see. Sometimes its through heavily frum neighborhoods, others its in very not frum neighborhoods. I usually end up speaking to at least one girl on my walks but its never a conversation or pick up line. There are times the thrill comes just from asking for directions I don't need, or for the time while I have my phone in my pocket. But other times I will just blatantly ask a women to have s*x with me. The common denominator is none of these conversations will get me any s*xual gratification. So I do not know what on earth I am doing, yet I can't figure out how to stop these long walks to no where.

There's probably almost zero chance any woman would be maskim. Women are very emotional people so they can have feelings for guys and find them attractive but they would never be with them until they connect emotionally first. If someone just walks over to them to ask for sex, they're 99.99% of the time gonna turn it down because 1) They didn't connect with you emotionally. 2) Women have much more self control for these things. Only men could have sex and not care about the person they're with because men focus more on the outside (naturally). That is just how men and women are naturally. For a woman (with a healthy mind), sex is about connecting to a loved one, not just pure pleasure. Now, I'm only a bochur and never had any sex, but I'm familiar with the concept of foreplay which I assume is enticing her to like you by connecting emotionally. Just asking for sex shows that you don't care about her as a person rather as an object and that is a turnoff for women. So I'm saying this in order to tell u not to even bother with these walks because I GUARANTEE it won't work or get you anywhere. You're just wasting your time. And you cant possibly care about a random stranger after talking for a few minutes. Just saying if in some crazy situation she would agree, chances are she's not mentally healthy at all because she has such a low self image that she needs to give her body to others just to feel good about herself, chances are she's been with a lot more men and probably has tons of diseases that will ruin your life forever. And probably isn't like a 50/50, its more like a 99.99% chance. It's not worth it. And like some people here mentioned there's also legal issues with that. Like @Geshmak! and others have said, please get help asap.

@noshimnosher, have you read MY story? You can read it here...<https://guardyoureyes.com/forum/19-Introduce-Yourself/386447-Still-work-to-do-but-there-is-always-hope%21>

I feel that you are MUCH more normal and less perverted than I was/am. So please try to change the narrative in your mind. You have a problem that is manifesting itself in a difficult and challenging way. But you are not a pervert. You are a regular guy! You just need to determine what is causing your behavior and resolve it so you can end the negative behavior. I am not c”v competing with you, I just want to show you that your categorization of yourself is distorted by your guilt and shame. Don't beat yourself up, build yourself up!! We are all here to help. Despair is counterproductive. Sending hugs your way.

Yes he is. And he is normal and a human being just like the rest of us. He has his own unique struggle just like the rest of us. We all have our "dark" side that we feel we cant reveal. One who reveals it is in a way better place then one who cant. So im proud that he revealed his struggle. Good for him!! So brave!

How someone's desires and urges manifest themselves can be very varied. If someone's specific desire is for frum women on the street, he is no different in concept than the guy who desires chat lines, SSA, masturbation, specific types of pornography viewing - with all the various possibilities, etc. It all boils down to the same thing. However, the specific urge being discussed - approaching a frum woman on the street is fraught with dangerous repercussions. As opposed to one who is indulging in pornography/chat lines in a private location, or having sex with people who advertise their availability and willingness for that, one who approaches strangers is risking a jail sentence, being scratched and bitten, publicly shamed, and being petitioned to have to leave the neighborhood/shul etc. The consequences for him and his family are potentially enormous. I have spoken to two people - through GYE - who unfortunately did this to themselves and their families with horrifying results. Both of them never asked their "victim" outright, but stalked them - followed , stared constantly. One did it with a frum woman, and one with a goyishe neighbor. Imagine how much more devastating it would be for one to actually solicit sex.

So although you are as healthy or unhealthy as the rest of us here, you are playing with a very dangerous fire that others are not. We all need or needed help, but you need help IMMEDIATELY. Save yourself and your family from potential disaster.
