Shmily, did you see how your whole attitude changed when you realized that there are hundreds of your brothers, your brethren, your family, who care for you. We are here to hear of your struggles, your successes, and yes, even your falls. Keep on posting! We want to hear how our tzaddik Shmily is doing. I'll quote HHM now "Yes, Tzaddik. because only the good guys reach out for help". Your neshama cried for help and you started posting. Don't stop. I took it upon myself not to post eitzos (for now, at least. I'm pretty new here myself), but please reach out to HHM. His email is michelgelner@gmail.com. Or someone else that's safe. I reached out to him. Trust me, it hurt me to open to someone, but it was a game changer. We love you, brother.

I'm so far from recovery, I don't even believe that one day I will be even a drop better

You will. I'm living proof and so are so many others on GYE. You are closer to recovery now that you are here. Hatzlacha, bro
