

Enough is Enough

Hi, I'm a 21 year old Yeshiva Bochur. I started with books, magazines, and pictures @ age 13 and moved on to video @ 16. I became trapped in ABDL and hardcore BDSM porn. I've struggled on and off since 16 with porn, but B"H I've been clean from masturbation for over a year and a half.

I could have wrote the same 30 years ago. Use the tools and the support that is available here and it will change your life. I am doing it now. It's a shame that I waited so long. There are so many good people and good resources out there and if you put your mind to it you will be successful. don't ever think you are alone in the struggle

Thanks to all for the warm welcome! I'm B"H holding (For now Bli Ayin Hara) at a point where I'm not constantly struggling, it's more periodic slips and falls. I'm not faced the whole day with urges, it's just great to have a wonderful community of amazing people working on themselves together to fall back on when challenges crop up.

2 Wet Dreams last night. Probably because I made a change in my sleeping habit or ate too much. (I hadn't fallen or spent the whole day fantasizing) I'd mostly forgotten that nasty feeling.

Just wanted to share something that helped when I stopped masturbation. For the first month I was extremely careful NEVER to touch at all, even incidentally (Bathroom and shower etc.). That made things easier for me.

This may be awkward but I never understood how one can "not touch" when we use the bathroom! (#1 obvs)

I use tissues to handle the area after urinating, you basically take a bunch of tissue and scrunch it up into a ball (or to any form that's thick you can do this by also folding the tissue in on itself a few times) and then use that as an instrument for what you want to do. The idea is that you don't touch it with your hands directly and this is the halacha for single people and it's considered pious for married people also not to do this although some hold (and the halacha might follow them I'm not sure) that if one's wife is out of the city, a married man can't do this.

If I quoted the halacha wrong in regards to married people post below because I am unsure about the part I said about the wife being out of the city.
