Hi teyerehyd. Kol hakavod to you for coming forward and having the bravery to open up about this!

Besides for dealing with the underlying issues, could you avoid dressing in the ways that cause you to become aroused? Are you referring to just a basic put-togetherness which is necessary for your healthy dignity, which would then be more difficult to avoid, or are you referring to something more than that, like wearing trendy clothes, or clothes that fit in a very specific way? If the latter, maybe you could start by just not dressing like that to at least dull down the manifestation of the feelings.

Hi I understand your struggle.

it can feel great and on top of the world when your clothes fit and look just so.

the comment above gave good advice? Can you simplify your outfits?

maybe minus an accessory, etc.

hatzlacha!

I hear your pain ach it hurts!! but if possible I recommend the same as the 2 above

1.Maybe dress a little less enough to feel good about yourself but not to much to get triggered-thats for now

2.And maybe even more important try getting to the bottom of it Why is it so important me, What exactly is it that triggers me -is it when when I dress a certain way and other way not, and why davke like this ,When was the first time i felt this way

I see a lot of home work here and with seyato dishmnayo you can get hold of it and work on it much success on your journey

Hi! I suffer from a sexual fetish (clothing) that impacts my life on a day to day basis. When I dress very put together it makes me feel more masculine which triggers the arousal. This is obviously very annoying on many levels.

Any anyone aware of a therapist that has specializes in these things and can help reduce the attraction attached to these items?

I appreciate it!!

Call Relief for a referral. Any sexual addiction therapist should be able to help with this.
