

Coming back after a while

Took some guts to make the move to post after a long while not being on the site. Definitely in a different place than I was last time I was here. Hoping to continue to draw inspiration from all of you!

Great job! It takes courage to step out of your comfort zone and post after a long absence. I'm glad to hear that you're in a different place now and I hope that this community can continue to inspire you. Chizku veimtzu!

Hi, BH so far so good since last post. Unfortunately, I had a setback in my personal life (unrelated to GYE) and in trying to consider why this happened, or rather what I should learn from it, my immediate assumption is probably to continue trying to improve shemiras einayim.

anyway, this too shall pass and the Ribono Shel Olam has a plan for me, hopefully this motivates me to keep working hard and trying to grow closer to Him.
