

scared from the urge to come

Posted by crispy - 19 Sep 2023 17:22

I am b"h 11 days clean. and i thank hashem with all my hart for this success.

but the story is that in all of this 11 days I didn't have any urge at all. it even starts to feel like this problem is completely gone, (which is most prob not the case). and I am very scared of the moment when this urges will come flying in my face, and they usually come in groups. I dont have menucha from this fear. i cant focus and be happy with my accomplishment cause this fear keeps popping in to my mind.

any thoughts on how to deal with this fear?

also how can i prepare myself for the urges that will most probably come back?

f2f program really helps. but i am sensing a storm and i feel i need something to feel strong (maybe someone can tell me which specific clip from f2f will be good for my situation) its always great to hear advice from the intelligent people hear.

Maybe phone "stuff" appears to be more personal.

sorry.

pls explain. how would a recording of people talking dirty to each other, feel more personal then watching it happening live on a screen?

I thought you meant that you were chatting with them on the phone.

that's what I first meant. and that is why I wrote another post to explain myself better that even when its just a recording I feel it stronger then video.

which sounds weird.

although I am certainly no expert in the matter perhaps when you only have audio more is left up to your imagination as opposed to video which is you get what u see right now I 2 don't care about this. all I want is to get back to that place of strength that I was before my fall.

it is ssoooo hard, it feels like I need to start again from the beginning.

The success of you staying clean is dependent on how you deal with the sometimes inevitable slip/fall. For example, whenever I space out for part of davening my mind tells me "what you missed so much already, forget about it". But I tell myself, "now I have the opportunity to work on getting over failures. This is a test that may be more important than concentrating on davening in the first place". The same applies here.

The Sforno says - When Hashem asked Kayin "Lama naflu panecha?", His message was - If there is a way to fix the problem, just do that - No need to be down in the dumps. Your korban was not accepted? Bring another one that is more acceptable and move on. A mistake is just that - a mistake. The world does not come to an end because of a mistake - especially when there is an obvious way to simply fix the issue.
