

Feel stuck in life and with wife
Posted by sbj - 05 Apr 2024 16:53

Hi, I'm not new to GYE, I've been here in the past and benefitted a lot. I'm in a tough spot so I thought maybe I can get some support here. I'm thinking if to share my life story (which in itself may be therapeutic for me) or just go with the here and now.

My friend, sharing can be very helpful. Please share whatever you feel comfortable sharing, we care about you, and we want to hear from you. Here's a hug in the meantime

Pretty much all of us have been through tough spots (I would bet even people that aren't members have tough spots) There ain;t no support like what you can find over here as long as YKW doesnt turn you into a teacup.

Thank you all for responding! It means very much to me.

I was advised to switch to the bb forum so I'll continue there under same title.

See you there.
