At one point a few months ago i started watching porn. my shame was bad and i reached out to gye and they hooked me up with an amazing mentor who i contact almost every night via text if that day was a clean day. bh i was clean since then with a few falls.*

i am in israel now and the streets are filled with hashems beautiful human beings and i cant control myself from looking. all this causing masturbation almost on a daily basis. Anyone with practical eitzos and words of chizuk i'll be glad to hear.

Here's a draft of some lyrics for the Chevra. I hope to fix them up a bit more when I have some time:

I closed and locked the door to my room,

With that foreboding feeling I have come to know.

With my heart and fingers trembling,

And a brand new smartphone, that will do just fine.

Cause my mentor said, this time it will be different,
I've thought those words so many times before,
But you've got the drive, and you'll see that you can do it,
I thought alright, Ill try my best once more.

As I left the room and put away the phone,
I felt like turning back right then and there.
As the struggles from the past years filled my mind,
I wondered just how long I will last this time.

I wondered when the fall would be this time,
Thought about how depressing it would be.
And though my friends think I am so shtark, and cool
I've really given up on me.

And my mentor said, this time it will be different,
I've thought those words so many times before,
I know you try so hard, and I see that you are special,
I said alright, I'll try my best once more.

My chevra all around me don't know how I feel,
I've learnt to keep my feelings deep inside.
And when I ask a shtarke kasha, they ooh and ahh,
If only they knew how sick I feel.

And I know that all too soon I'll fall again,

And think, how did my plans fail me once more.

And though its wrong, the nagging thought will cross my mind,

Why did Hashem create someone like me?

I'm now on my phone oh so late at night,

With that sorry feeling I have come to know.

But its empathy for another fella that is like me,

Cause now I'm not calling, I'm the mentor.

And every now and then I see a look in a teen's eyes,

That reflects the look that used to be in mine.,

And I tell myself no matter what comes my way

I'll help this teen find his way out of this.

Oh, and I say to him

This time it will be different.

I know that you have heard those words before,

But the time is ripe and I believe that you are special,

He says alright, oh he says alright.

I'll try my best once more.

I know that if I try to sing it, I won't make it through.... Too many tears....
I think we need a choir...

Such beautiful lyrics....
I'm reserving some solo...(you can cut it out of the recording afterwards...

I am here a couple months and just figured out an amazing feature I though GYE forums didn't have so I'll share it here.

When a thread has a few new posts I always clicked on "last post" and scrolled up till I found the post where I left off.

The truth is, if you click on the (3 new) in green it brings you to the last post where you left off.

#THANKYOUHASHEM I was always annoyed to have to keep scrolling till I found where I left off.

I'll take feedback if this is new to the crowd, or I am late to the game.
