so sorry for your pain. 12 years of recovery is amazing. even if you occasionally feel like you are falling. What methods have you used so far? There is hope for every single yid no matter what....

best wishes

I practiced the 12 steps program and also went to therapy, I also frequently attended meetings and was in touch with program members.

There's always hope, and ashreicha to you for putting in all that work.

How often does occasionally acting out mean? Have you seen improvement over 12 years?

Have you ever spoken to Dov?
