

Tired of the cycle

Posted by HashemLovesYou12 - 10 Dec 2024 00:03

I'm a Typical kid 19, in yeshiva been on this journey since 16 got exposed to this stuff at 10. I recently hit rock bottom for the current stage im in, i decided to filter my phone, i got the strict one from tag, no browser, no social media apps. Its a life saver no more braindead scrolling and obviously no access to shmutz. BH right now im in a very very good state of mind, learnt alot over the years. Im so happy GYE exists because outside sources for help can be scary been there done that. Glad i can be part of the community. Good luck!

Wow! Hashem up there is looking down at you and is really proud! You took that first step of installing a filter. Real mesiras nefesh saying goodbye to all the things we think we "love".

Wishing you luck moving forward and keep making Hashem proud (WYLMFAKMHP)!

I don't think that should be asked on a public forum

Gye has helped me immensely. I've met people who struggle like me. I thought I was all alone. I've managed to fight the battle and to watch my eyes and avoid triggers
