

Tov veyoshor Hashem al kein yoreh chata'im baderech!

Rabbeinu Yonah explains this posuk, (as heard from Rabbi Mattisyahu Salamon Shlit"a) that hashem leads people who were nichshal in a chet on the proper way, ze hu mah sheshalech nevi'im to teach us the proper way.

BORUCH HASHEM! We were zoche to be directed to this eida kedosha, a truly holy gathering of people who are Hashem's ONLY freinds in this lowly world. [i]Bemokom shebalei teshuva omdim ein tzadikim gemurim yecholim la'amod!/[i]] We may not be like the tzadikim of previos generations, but in the dark, dirty, dingy, discusting, and degrading society we were put into, {in his infinite wisdom... we belive we are lucky to be in this generation, otherwise we wouldn't be here! HE doesn't make any mistakes!} we can accomplish even more than the amolige tzadikim did! WE CAN BRING THE GEULA! After all, a small 4 watt nightlite bulb will make all the difference whether you bump into the walls or not in if you put it in a room which is otherwise in total darkness; whereas a million candlepower searchlight does little good when used in bright daylight. As CHAZA"L say: Shraga betihara mai ahanye.

This forum is for personal intoductions, well... an "anonymous introduction" is quite a difficult feat to pull off. Just kidding, I understand the purpose, to start our connection with others and give/get chizuk.

This writer is a yungerman who has been looking at re'ios assurios even before he knew that he shouldn't be looking at them. He was doing the ma'aseh before he knew that it is an aveira, r"l. At 14 I happened to see the last chapters in the Sefer Kitzur Shulchan Oruch and discovered the rotzon Hashem (after double checking with my Rebbe that I understood what I read. I am married now with a few children, Boruch Hashem, and have been struggling with the yetzer horah since then.

Since I do consider myself somewhat of an oved hashem, after all I am jewish too, the last couple of months I generally managed to withhold from looking at the worst, but I did indulge in looking, searching, and staring at pics which my filter did let through as they are not classified as dirt in the lowest sense of the word, but were enough to be meorer the ta'avos in my heart. They were against the rotzon Hashem. The proof is that yetzer horah was pushing me to do it, and even more so, the results of these pics were often tumah ma'asim.

Brov rachamov vechasodov, I was zoche to be directed to this great and holy site by a Rabbi who knows about my struggles (I am forever indebted to him for this refferral!) and with much siyata dishmaya and the chizuk I recived from this site, I was zoche to have a highler level of shmiras einayim for the last 29 days that I haven't had since before I was a Bar Mitzvah!

Yasher Ko'ach to all the good jews who set up this site, to all those that post on this site, to all those that help fund this site, and to all those dear friends of Hakodosh Boruch Hu who value true kosher SIGHT!!!

You mean Yosef Hatzaddik is not your real name?

That is the title I am dreaming about. the one that newspapers are gonna refer to me with. it is not the name on my Talis bag. ;D

I recently had a conversation with a Godol. Told him about GYE, the Phone Groups, The 12 Steps, & how I actually experienced some changes myself. (Yes, I did. Believe it or not!)

At another opportunity, I asked him what should be my avoda this Shovavim tat. He replied that I am fine, I should continue in this same track. It seemed to me that he was just trying to brush off my question so I persisted. Not sinning is not something special for these weeks, we mustn't sin anytime. These weeks are especially opportune for being mesaken our pegamim - rectifying the damage that we cause through our sins.

This time he responded more directly, saying that the program we are on is a good path. This will correct the past, continuing this work is Shovavim work.

Shovavim is a time for more guilt. I am sure lots of people act out more during shovavim.

i don't want to hijack YH's thread but i think that shovavim-induced tension is part of a general misconception and warped idea of what Hashem wants from us and how He relates to us. He is not the Big Bad Guy in the Sky, he is our Father and loves us more than we know. He wants us to be clean and pure because it is the very best thing for us.

Internalizing ZemirosShabbos's message may be a MAJOR part of the tikkun of Shovavim Tat!!!

A&W Moment:

I had a Let God moment. Hashem didn't let me down.

I wanted to look in a Chumash to try to think of a vort.

I decided not to start at Sheini (where I am up to). I wanted to look further into the parsha.

So I just opened the Chumash at random, thinking that I will start learning from the 1st page in Parshas Bo that it opens up to.

It opened to..... Sheini!

I decided that Hashem knows better than me & I should just learn from there.

I started learning.

I was not happy. It was not working out according to my plan.
The 2nd Possuk contained a VERY inspirational msg!

Did Hashem have a good plan after all???

You can see the vort in the Ha'oros Thread
