

Tov veyoshor Hashem al kein yoreh chata'im baderech!

Rabbeinu Yonah explains this posuk, (as heard from Rabbi Mattisyahu Salamon Shlit"a) that hashem leads people who were nichshal in a chet on the proper way, ze hu mah sheshalech nevi'im to teach us the proper way.

BORUCH HASHEM! We were zoche to be directed to this eida kedosha, a truly holy gathering of people who are Hashem's ONLY freinds in this lowly world. [i] Bemokom shebalei teshuva omdim ein tzadikim gemurim yecholim la'amod! [/i] We may not be like the tzadikim of previos generations, but in the dark, dirty, dingy, discusting, and degrading society we were put into, {in his infinite wisdom... we belive we are lucky to be in this generation, otherwise we wouldn't be here! HE doesn't make any mistakes!} we can accomplish even more than the amolige tzadikim did! WE CAN BRING THE GEULA! After all, a small 4 watt nightlite bulb will make all the difference whether you bump into the walls or not in if you put it in a room which is otherwise in total darkness; whereas a million candlepower searchlight does little good when used in bright daylight. As CHAZA"L say: Shraga betihara mai ahanye.

This forum is for personal intoductions, well... an "anonymous introduction" is quite a difficult feat to pull off. Just kidding, I understand the purpose, to start our connection with others and give/get chizuk.

This writer is a yungerman who has been looking at re'ios assurios even before he knew that he shouldn't be looking at them. He was doing the ma'aseh before he knew that it is an aveira, r"l. At 14 I happened to see the last chapters in the Sefer Kitzur Shulchan Oruch and discovered the rotzon Hashem (after double checking with my Rebbe that I understood what I read. I am married now with a few children, Boruch Hashem, and have been struggling with the yetzer horah since then.

Since I do consider myself somewhat of an oved hashem, after all I am jewish too, the last couple of months I generally managed to withhold from looking at the worst, but I did indulge in looking, searching, and staring at pics which my filter did let through as they are not classified as dirt in the lowest sense of the word, but were enough to be meorer the ta'avos in my heart. They were against the rotzon Hashem. The proof is that yetzer horah was pushing me to do it, and even more so, the results of these pics were often tumah ma'asim.

Brov rachamov vechasodov, I was zoche to be directed to this great and holy site by a Rabbi who knows about my struggles (I am forever indebted to him for this refferral!) and with much siyata dishmaya and the chizuk I recived from this site, I was zoche to have a highler level of shmiras einayim for the last 29 days that I haven't had since before I was a Bar Mitzvah!

Yasher Ko'ach to all the good jews who set up this site, to all those that post on this site, to all those that help fund this site, and to all those dear friends of Hakodosh Boruch Hu who value true kosher SIGHT!!!

Dancing at a chasuna recently, I thought that A chasuna is a perfect avoda for Shovavim tat!

The tikun for pegam bris (which is wasting the koach of the guf for aveiros) is to do mitzvos which use a lot of koach!

Sweating during mitzvos!

Also:

Pegam bris is the exact opposite of marriage!

Many nigunim are MAJOR mussar!

- Im lo achshav Eimasai
- Kol rega v'rega sh'adam choseim piv
- Some nigunim are tefilos
- Many nigunim are praise to Hashem!

A thought during the dancing:

Sos asis v`sageil akara b`kibutzbaneha besocha.

How?

B`simcha-through Simcha!!

A thought during Maariv:

Atta kadosh ushimcha kadosh.

You wanna know who else is kadosh?

U`kedoshim [are those that] b`chol yom yehalelucha.

Those who constantly praise Hashem reach the level of KEDUSHA!

r twerski told me by simchas torah that putting the effort into the dancing is a tikkun for this issue for the reason you said

Feedback requested.

A few minutes ago I encountered a slip. I don't know how, but I found an open webpage with many objectional pics and links etc. Using peripheral vision I scanned the page & found a few links that interested me. I opened them in new tabs.

Realizing that I am on a slippery slope and within a few minutes I will reach the point of no return, I wanted to stop, but I was too interested to just close the browser w/o checking out those links. So I texted a dear GYE friend that I am slipping & that he should please call me in 3 minutes. My reasoning was that for a few minutes I think I can control myself. Longer than that..... Besides, the build-up to a fall usually takes more than three minutes, and also, that will give enough time to still my curiosity. (I didn't open the shmutz links & even some of those that I did click on were blocked by my filter. [Why that 1st page was not blocked I do not know!]) I thought that if I were to use brute force & just close it, I may be setting myself for disappointed feelings.
