

Tov veyoshor Hashem al kein yoreh chata'im baderech!

Rabbeinu Yonah explains this posuk, (as heard from Rabbi Mattisyahu Salamon Shlit"a) that Hashem leads people who were nichshal in a chet on the proper way, ze hu mah sheshalech nevi'im to teach us the proper way.

BORUCH HASHEM! We were zoche to be directed to this eida kedosha, a truly holy gathering of people who are Hashem's ONLY freinds in this lowly world. [i]Bemokom shebalei teshuva omdim ein tzadikim gemurim yecholim la'amod![/i] We may not be like the tzadikim of previos generations, but in the dark, dirty, dingy, discusting, and degrading society we were put into, {in his infinite wisdom... we belive we are lucky to be in this generation, otherwise we wouldn't be here! HE doesn't make any mistakes!} we can accomplish even more than the amolige tzadikim did! WE CAN BRING THE GEULA! After all, a small 4 watt nightlite bulb will make all the difference whether you bump into the walls or not in if you put it in a room which is otherwise in total darkness; whereas a million candlepower searchlight does little good when used in bright daylight. As CHAZA"L say: Shraga betihara mai ahanye.

This forum is for personal intoductions, well... an "anonymous introduction" is quite a difficult feat to pull off. Just kidding, I understand the purpose, to start our connection with others and give/get chizuk.

This writer is a yungerman who has been looking at re'ios assurios even before he knew that he shouldn't be looking at them. He was doing the ma'aseh before he knew that it is an aveira, r"l. At 14 I happened to see the last chapters in the Sefer Kitzur Shulchan Oruch and discovered the rotzon Hashem (after double checking with my Rebbe that I understood what I read. I am married now with a few children, Boruch Hashem, and have been struggling with the yetzer horah since then.

Since I do consider myself somewhat of an oved Hashem, after all I am Jewish too, the last couple of months I generally managed to withhold from looking at the worst, but I did indulge in looking, searching, and staring at pics which my filter did let through as they are not classified as dirt in the lowest sense of the word, but were enough to be meorer the ta'avos in my heart. They were against the rotzon Hashem. The proof is that yetzer horah was pushing me to do it, and even more so, the results of these pics were often tumah ma'asim.

Brov rachamov vechasodov, I was zoche to be directed to this great and holy site by a Rabbi who knows about my struggles (I am forever indebted to him for this refferral!) and with much siyata dishmaya and the chizuk I recived from this site, I was zoche to have a highler level of shmiras einayim for the last 29 days that I haven't had since before I was a Bar Mitzvah!

Yasher Ko'ach to all the good jews who set up this site, to all those that post on this site, to all those that help fund this site, and to all those dear friends of Hakodosh Boruch Hu who value true kosher SIGHT!!!

On the way home from Shul recently, I saw a semi-dressed woman.

I couldn't get my mind off it.

I tried thinking that she is a person etc.

Didn't help.

I tried Dov's method of praying for her... (I have never found it to work for in the past!)

My mind became so occupied with thinking of things to pray for, that my mind stopped dwelling

A very dear recovery friend recently quoted his Sponsor: "If you are a woman and have problems, you should walk in front of me & I will pray for you!"

I tried thinking that she is a person etc. Didn't help.

With H's help this approach has proven to be very helpful for me, but I think it's more than just thinking she's a person. It's about switching your mindset from what her beauty, attractiveness, etc. does for ME, to how can I be of service to other people. Being of service to others, which would include her, would 1st mean thinking of others as real people and not as attractions. It means thinking of them as people with human needs, families, etc. B"H this has helped immensely at times where trying to shut off my lust switch (Which also, B"H, works pretty well) just didn't cut it.

Also helpful, and probably more enriching, is turning to H' when you are attracted and saying "OK - You got my attention. Where are we going with this?" Dov has mentioned a related idea which makes this even more enriching. He Davens "H', what I see in her, please help me see in You instead!"

With the "Davening for her" method remember Dov's other Yesod - don't Daven for her while )

Dear Yosefhatzaddik,

Your breaking it down into dwelling and thinking not really helping, but taking action and (trying to!) pray can work, was brilliant. I never thought of it that way, and thanks.

Ciao!
