

thank god for this site

I can relate to a lot of things that people are going thru on this site ,i had very similar experience in my younger years ,and from time to time not so long ago ,the one thing i found to be the most powerful problem when comes to the yd, if you open the door a crack for him he will force the door wide open and become your boss and then its too late .

since i found this little corner of gye ,the gateway to the gelu ,in a world of hell ,i finally got control of my eyes .

i always had the problem when confronted with a nesyon my yd always told me take a 2 look and look its really not so bad ,she is not so nice .

the kosher news sites always got me addicted ,and then i looked a little at cnn ,and i couldn't break the habit until i found gye ,they gave me back self control i have 1 request to make from gye for all of klal yisroel that are lost in the 49 share tuma please separate a site for non addicts ,so all the rabonim who bury their head in sand and don't see the truth ,will at least direct people to a site just for chizuk on shmeras eynaim ,and once they see the truth there they will come to the addicts site and be helped ,please these neshmos are crying help me im lost and they have nowhere to turn to please bring them to this Beautiful island that can lift them out of hell to paradise .

the zechus of the person who started this and all who give the constant chizuk will surely be zoche to see the real light that is already starting to shine from gye please keep up the good work and save more neshmos ,there is hope its here now .

sighed with tears of joy
