

Needing Help. Trying to stay strong.

Posted by dovekbashem - 01 Apr 2010 03:17

I am 21 years old. I remember the first time I touched myself inappropriately was in grade 7, just months before my bar mitzvah. I promised myself that after my bar mitzvah I would never touch myself again. It has been 9 years! I have touched myself inappropriately, I have touched girls inappropriately and am constantly (sometimes daily) failing at my battle with the internet. I used to think I was just a healthy teenager (I was not so frum at the time) but now realize that I have an addiction. About 4 years ago, I began to learn halacha seriously and decided to become shomer negiah. It was the hardest thing I have ever done and life has been hard since then. I sometimes convince myself that the only way to maintain my shmirth negiah is by turning to the internet. I read on this website that fantasizing about various arayos is often normal for a sex addict which helps me confirm that that is what I am. I want to start dating, I want to raise a family of ovdei hashem and yirei shamayim but I don't want to lie to my wife and children about who I truly am. I want to be the eved hashem, the kadosh yid that G-d expects me to be. I want to stop falling and starting living a life of purity and purpose. I am clean now for 4 days. I am embarrassed by how proud that makes me but it is at least a start... I only hope my strength continues.

It is late at night. I am in bed. Happy at the end of a clean day one!

Thank you GYE. Thank you to the chevra. Thank you G-d for giving me a clean day.

I really hope to post every day this time, sharing my thoughts and my feelings... and I really hope to take it day-by-day. Looking forward to just one more clean day tomorrow... and then just one more after that.

Alone working on the computer tonight. This is when it gets really tough. Stress mounts, tiredness sets in...

I am reading my previous posts and reminding myself how good I will feel tomorrow if I make it through the night and how terrible I would feel if I don't. I remember, many months ago, I came to the realization that alone time is not really time to be alone - it's quality time to have with you and Hashem - with no one else interrupting. I'm gonna spend this time with Hashem... and with all of you... and I won't, chas v-shalom, push Hashem away by inviting more garbage into my mind and my life. It's been too long. I've had enough of it already!

I just saw this note lying on the floor near my desk:

NOTE TO DB:

I NEED YOU CLEAN.

THANKS.

- HASHEM.

And PS: I think He means it. Which means He'll help you get there. Oh, what a ride you'll have, too.

Dear Hashem,

I appreciate the note but I thought you would know where I lived by now!

Luckily, you taught the doc a thing or two about hashavas aveida... thanks Hashem.

(still clean. Day 3)

It would be really nice to actually chat with members of GYE the way we can chat on msn, aol, gchat, facebook etc.

Note to GYE: Is there any way to create that on this site? We can already see whether people are on-line and we can see what they are looking at on the site but we cannot actually TALK to them. The PM's are really great but they don't seem to be that different from e-mails. Does anyone think an instant messaging system would be possible? It would be amazing for me to be able to really talk to my friends on this site in times when I am slipping or falling.

For now, this rant is doing the job of distracting me from slipping!

Thanks JIP. How can I catch you on google talk? Is that just gchat or is it something else? Do I need an e-mail address of yours to find you? Do I have to make a new account to keep myself anonymous?

Many people have mentioned my "coming back," implying that I disappeared for a while. I just want to explain what I was doing over the summer months that I disappeared.

I was telling myself that I would fight this addiction on my own. I was coming home every night (seriously, every night!!) and falling. I felt like a failure and I was frankly too ashamed to come back to all the holy Jews on this site. I was almost trying to figure out how to live life with my addiction. Then, at the end of the summer, I decided to keep on mb in order to avoid p at any cost. I did this, avoiding p, for about 2 weeks. Then I decided to mb out of the picture too. This lasted for maybe another two weeks. I feel a couple of times after Yom Kippur. A couple times more by the end of succos and by the time the holidays were over and we were back to real life - I was down in the dumps and couldn't get up.

At first, I left because I was too ashamed. Then I decided I would only come back when I had a long clean streak to report. Now, I realize that I need all of you to help me reach that streak and that I am not reporting my journey to you guys - I am making you all a part of it.

In terms of not feeling worthy to be among all of you - The Rambam lists a mitzvah de-oraishah l-hidavek b-talmidei chachamim because that is part of because "dovek bashem". Worthy or not, I need you all as friends in order to reach my goal of being dovek bashem.

Today is Day 4. The urge is stronger than the past three days. I'm finding it hard to concentrate on my learning or my studies. Just knowing you all are listening gives me chizuk - I know I will stay clean today.

Shabbat Shalom.

day 4. wow! what an achievement. and yes, i know its hard! but keep on trucking. try to keep yourself busy. do you have jewish music, sometimes it helps me.

whatever you do, your only goal is just to keep clean tonight. tomorrow is too far away to think about. tell yourself that you want to keep clean just for tonight.
