Hello from Blind Beggar

Hello Tzaddikim! I just found this site last week. I think it is going to make my Rosh Hashono and Yom Kippur. I think the newness of the 90 day chart will get me 40 clean days to Shemini Atzeres but I am afraid of what will happen next. Does anyone have any suggestions?

I have read enough of the forum to see that you are all tzaddikim and all serving Hashem every day clean and again after every fall.

The holy Baal Shem Tov taught that the yetzer horo is more interested in the post-sin depression than in the sin itself.

Blind Beggar who wants to have eyes only for Hashem.

It will last, it will last! If you lust, it won't last, but if you don't lust....it will surely last with Hashem's help.

I just realized that I objectify all women. The pretty ones are no chiddush, but when I see a fat or old woman and write her off as worthless I am also objectifying her. Fat women and old women are also people, I know some personally and they are real. Lots to learn.

What a busy thread. It actually takes 91 days to get on the chart. I am now on it for the second time in my life. Tomorrow will be 400 days on the chart in total, what a way to go into Shemini Atzeres. Thank you everyone in GYE. 96 days on the chart is my personal record and today is 208 days since I last was mz"l, also a record.

Wishing everyone in GYE a serene, sober, kosher and joyous Shemini Atzeres and Simchas Torah.

98 days on the WOH! My old record was 96 days. This is all due to the fellowship of GYE and SA and my TaPhSiC shevua. If I think about shmutz for more than 30 seconds, I have to go to Kever Rochel within 3 days.

of course 30 seconds is a decent chunk of time (for a thought) but i am sure that Reb BB is trying to make a realistic goal. saying i won't think about lust for even 5 seconds is doomed to failure. lichoirah
