

Hello from Blind Beggar

Posted by Blind Beggar - 28 Aug 2010 21:19

Hello Tzaddikim! I just found this site last week. I think it is going to make my Rosh Hashono and Yom Kippur. I think the newness of the 90 day chart will get me 40 clean days to Shemini Atzeres but I am afraid of what will happen next. Does anyone have any suggestions?

I have read enough of the forum to see that you are all tzaddikim and all serving Hashem every day clean and again after every fall.

The holy Baal Shem Tov taught that the yetzer horo is more interested in the post-sin depression than in the sin itself.

Blind Beggar who wants to have eyes only for Hashem.

Why do we say Hallel on Rosh Chodesh?

Rav Shimshon Rephael Hirsch zichrono livrocho says that we live with miracles every day. There are personal miracles, even if we are not addicts in recovery, and national miracles. We should say Hallel every day but chazal do not allow that because it would cheapen Hallel, so we say Hallel on Rosh Chodesh to thank Hashem for all those daily miracles.

What has GYE done for me lately?

I have 500 cumulative clean days on the GYE Chart.

200 days on the Chart!

508 days in total and 317 days sober.

Thank you Hashem and thank you everyone in GYE.

I just want to point out that Kedusha got up to 1000 days on the Chart in one stretch from day one without falling even once. That's more than I can say about my 208 days. Can anyone else make such a claim?

I know, Dov, only one day at a time but still awesome is awesome.

This thread has over ten thousand views and I have 492 posts. I want 500 so I am posting.

What should I say?

Pretty new worker just started yesterday but not much of a problem yet. Haven't heard from 1daat for a while. Haven't heard from Kedusha or Bardichev for ages. Waffle, waffle. Maybe I should say something negative about the 12 Steps and have Dov start a war on my thread.

here are some sure-fire controversy-stoking content-laden pearls-of-wisdom about the 13th step:

Britt wrote on 09 Jul 2010 02:50:

13th step (or is that 11th commandment):

don't tell loshon hara against yourself.

you are strong and capable and more.

don't forget it.

usually I'll couch my words on this forum in 'conditional' tones like maybe, one person's opinion, etc.

"don't tell loshon hara against yourself."

period.

even if, chas vashalom, you think it might be true.

especially.

kinda like when you buy bagels (at least here in america) - you buy 12, and they say, since you're buying so many, you're a good customer, we'll throw in a 13th one for free...

shalacking the fumes of which combine wiht the possum porridge and rabbits feet, gnewt tales and all dem yummys and take us even higher. and the cycle begins once more with step one

OTR you are right

we iz nuts

but to add steps to the Steps? especially 'teen' steps...

everyone knows that the teenage years are hard and dangerous studies have shown that 100% of teens that got into accidents or died were in their teens

so anything 'teen' is a little scary

hope this helps

There are 15 Shir Hamaalos so there needs to be a matching number of Steps. For extra credit explain how each Kapitel is Mechuvan to the appropriate Step.
