Actually I wanted to say something really nasty about the idea of being inspired by pashke-villian or Israeli (or American) Yated Ne'Eman -but then Yosef HaTzaddik would have kindly requested that I remove my acidic comments for the sake of Achdus...

To put it mildly -I find neither inspiring in the least...

thats it, i wanna talk to a expert over the phone without he should know who i am, not pay money for him, is it posible?

the reason what made me decide that i wanna speack is: cause i red (?????) in the handbook, that sometimes u gotta punish your self with a taanis of 24 hs.....

man that scared the !"$$ out of me.....

something that helps me and helps many people is having people you can call who understand the issues we are dealing with. when a moment of weakness comes and we feel like a drunk person reaching for the bottle we can get an emergency influx of sanity by reaching out to someone else who is objective about the situation and can help us stay out of the garbage.

you can build relationships with people on GYE and do the same.

you can have anonymous relationships, meaning it is possible to just give the guy your phone number and your screen name. this might be all you are comfortable with at first. eventually you will probably become more at ease and exchange real names and not hide behind screen names and the like. takes time to build the trust from both ends.

about wives knowing, that is a long and involved parsha. if you look around the forum you will see it discussed, as Yosef Hatzadik generously referenced.

the general idea i get is that it is not a good idea to break it to the wife unless there is substantial 'clean time' under your belt and it can be looked at as something in the past rather than in the here and now. but every case needs to be judged individually and you should not rush into something like that.

well after saying that as more as i get in here, more i see that this porn etc issue is very complicated, and i have no degree in psychiatry or psychology, ill only share my opinion, that to tell the wife in my eyes is suicide.

even in a case where u developed a need of non missionary relation, so u need something allse, cause u saw something allse..... just ask for it "nicely".....

and if u dont get it ohh.... she will have rachmanut towards you when u gonna tell her: "oh but im so sorry i saw ppl doing it and now i need it".... oh yes after such good argument you may as well pay her to do it and finish....

and if you dont need nothing special in bed, why should u tell her?

if i would be the poisek hador i would not allow to tell.

unless she is a baal tshuva or very very modren and the all thing is been seen with a diffrent prespective and light....

but a haimisher yinger man if he wasnt caught, its a aveiro to tell her.... well a few aveiros
