call of duty, car theft etc 8)

Action more than strategy? 15gb is plenty for online gaming - I've played multiplayer games with a USB internet connection. Fairly sophisticated ones, too. There is surprisingly very little bandwidth being used by most games, because all the data is on your computer. We should try one sometime.

because i dont want in my house should be official a regular internet connections for a few reasons

a) its assur

b) when i do teshuva is eassyer..

3) not good for the kids

d) having a regular inernet connection , shapes my house on a way i dont want it, so i have a usb that i can hide, only my wife knows i have it, and the kids think i dont have internet.

But this usb has a limit for 15 gb with high speed a month...

(a) Internet is assur? I once did see flyers in Yiddish saying that Internet is evil, and that people who make their parnos thereby will not see long-term benefit, etc. I believe it did the rounds of communities worldwide. But... honestly? Assur? Do you believe that?

(b) When you say "Teshuva", you really mean "when you stop"?

(3?) I don't share you view on what is good for the kids - I believe in teaching responsible use, so people don't turn out like...

(d) I can understand where you are coming from with this point. I'm not convinced that it all makes sense in context, but that's another discussion for another day.

i like every kind of music almost if its good done, i play a instrument my self (dont wanna say what im scared of revealing too much about me) but lets say that i enjoy the most rock

Being close to my age, I think we'd enjoy quite a bit in common - do you also find modern rock just isn't nearly as good as the more classic stuff? How did you get into the music and movies you're into?

And if you play piano, guitar or violin, then you certainly won't be identifiable at all - everyone seems to play them in Jewish communities.

Laag, how can you say that you don't enjoy anything in life besides porn, if all of the above (which you wrote) is true?

there is no more chance for me to get caught than a car should run me over, thats all im saying.

life is dangerous, but we gotta live it.... ill not cross the street cause of a car? ill not porn cause ill get caught? ill not fly by a plain cause its gonna crash?

YES i will do all that, and ill do all in my power not to die and not to get caught Porn has made a stupid ass (the king james bible kind) out of you. Plain and simple.

You think something I said to you or posted to you about getting caught was a "warning" or shaking a motherly finger at you. That's too bad, cuz it's not what I mean at all. I am stating facts. You will get caught. Your reputation is already destroyed. And the damage to your marriage, children, shul, and talmidim has already been done. I pity them all, for it is very painful discovering that the man who you held of and thought was pure...was really watching dirty videos and getting off when no one was looking. It hurts the people in our lives more than it hurts us.

I am not warning you or trying to stop you, for I believe that it is all shoin up-geret. I am not warning you in hopes that you quit. I frankly do not care for saving your soul, at all. I am not that 'nice' maybe. As I said before, kol me sh'ein bo deyah, ossur lerachem olov.

I still love you, though you have no idea what that means to love and still not have rachmonus. You do not seem to want rachmonus, but want to whine like a girl about how hard it is for you. And I do not give a damn for your pain. It would only hurt you if I did.

Good luck.

Aha! I knew we'd agree on something!

So... are you also a closet fan of the instrumental in the middle of Master of Puppets (the song, not the album)?

So what do you listen to nowadays? And come on.. spill which instrument you play.

today only chasidic music, yanni, classic.

the chasidic music got better last few years, the sound got better the arangments got better.

the best 2 cd in my eyes in the musical aspect (arangment) are the first cd of mordechai with let my ppl go and the 8 note of yossi green

OK - you'll need to help me through the modern Chassidic stuff. I kind of stopped at Metallish (and various nigunnim and zemiros. I've not heard 8 note - is that a must-buy?

And when are we going to get together for some online gaming?

How about classical/Baroque - anything from that period?

So how did you manage to give up Goyishe music, but not movies? Also, what particular kind of movies do you enjoy most?

again man your hipper open mind man, i dont know..... keep detegent and internet out of the reach of your children.... (rabanim say so, but its also so logical for me, i really dont undestand diffrently)

It is irresponsible to keep a pool without a gate or fence in your house if you have kids. But it is a Mitzva to teach your kids to swim. The alternative is to say that any body of water larger than a bathtub is assur... But I respect that many Rabbonim who are far more learned than I am have pronounced it assur, and I therefore respect their opinion. However I reject some of the more extreme pronouncements, such as "anyone who makes their Parnoso using the Internet should not give their money to Tzedaka, because it is tainted". (Yes, I saw that with my own eyes)

I think that different communities need different things right now, and the world is changing so fast that it is difficult to keep track of which communities need what, and how.

u probably dont need me to explain why is it really so dangerous, i dont need the internet for work so if u wanna hear from me a sevara why is internet so asur tell me

Actually, I would love to hear your thoughts on the matter. I accept that it is dangerous, and like giving a person a chainsaw. But a chainsaw is not assur? Surely it just needs proper training and safety precautions?

me3: i want to change

Serious question: Why?
