Well woman are a very strong power over us, the or hachaim says we can only win the battle cause we are jews and with the help of the torah, without it forget it.

And tora, is tora, its like 2 plus 2 is 4 and not 3.9 You wanna have the tora in your site u gotta really do it as it is complete about the heavy stuff: :

Now speacking more "stake" more gashmiut :

for my mind to stay clean out of all this nesecities (movies etc) I got to stay connected to hashem fully, cause if I am just doing a bit, meaning: I don't watch at woman but I speak lashom hara, it means im not really his slave, meaning, im not really careful about what he wants from me or not, so what happens is; that the second I get my lust attack I just go for it, be cause he aint really my boss....

But if i decide im his slave and I don't even speack lashon hara, well for a few reasons the lust attack is not gonna overcome me, 1) im not even really supposed to get a lust attack cause I am in constant been busy meaning my head is or davening or learning or reading, but never just circuling around 2) and in case I did got a lust attack (cause I am a addict or cause I am human) I still have more power than usual cause I am his slave and I don't do things he dosnt let.

I just want to make sure I got this straight. If I speak loshon hora or I'm not connected to torah and Hashem fully I might as well give up and I can continue to watch television and movies since there is no way I'm going to stay clean. Eventually, (perhaps if in between the movie watching I learn enough torah to really connect to Hashem) I will realize the folly of my ways, realize that I'm an eved Hashem that I shouldn't be speaking loshon hora, I shouldn't be look at things that provoke me into further sins and I will be inspired into teshuva shleima. Does this summarize your position?

I like this Jester guy. You like him too, but I think you like him the way a cat 'likes' a mouse...interesting to 'play' with and act sincere. He's a smart guy....But if you go around and around with him and burn him out like you played with others here, I will find out where you live and make you eat p'cha....bli-neder.

for sure for sure, 100 % . in your opinion, if someone by the end of the day didnt manage to help me , all he did was wasting hes time.

but i disagree with you. and i told it to you once , I just dont know how to quote a thing not from this page....

ur a jew: there is something in your nusach not good.

"there is no way to get disconnected from porn for someone like me who knows how good it is (, without really devoting and putting my all weight with hashem. its just impossible, monkey bussines wouldnt work

laagvokeles wrote on 29 May 2011 22:53:

are u a pshicolog?

I am most definitely not a pshicolog! A Pshickor? Sometimes...

So how is your learning today?

Oh - you said something a while ago, about your davening being affected by your actions. Here's what I was thinking.

Your actions are a further symptom of those shown in your davening. Why do I say this? Well:

Davening is a connection with Hashem. If you are not connecting properly, you lose that feeling of wellbeing - that glowing, like scratching an itch. If you are connected with Hashem, then you could not possibly be acting out in the way that you do. Seriously - the connection must be faulty for you to act out, so you can't blame the faulty connection on the acting out.

I think, and I could be wrong, that the problem lies with the connection. The actions are a consequence of the broken connection, as is the davening, and also the horrible emptiness in you - the one that brought you to GYE, the one you find it difficult to admit to yourself. The emptiness you feel for life, the one I can hear like a roaring waterfall into nothingness. The one you can deny until you are blue in the face, but I feel is there anyway, and you will not persuade me is not. Pornography, masturbation and movies are just one more symptom, and are not the cause of the emptiness in your davening and learning.

What do you think?

Aha!

You are even a step ahead of me! It's a good thing we didn't try chess - you'd have taken me down in no time.

Do you want to refine the question now, or do you want to do it over a beer...?
