There are plenty of good reasons to enjoy the sunshine!

So tell me.. Is the problem the emptiness, or what fills it? Hm?

or as they say in (or near) your neck of the woods: Spot on.

Hehe... I don't know which neck of which woods anymore. Never be too sure! I'm not.

ok. i see that u made ur point.

well. i really think life is boring, and even i love my kid and i enjoy them here and there.... i still think that what really keeps me in this world (i dont kill my self) is:

1) i dont have the gots....

2) im gonna burn in hell (its gonna be worse...)

but all this changes if i am a good jew.... then i enjoy every s?ngle moment...

Because it is boring, or because it is empty, or because the emptiness got filled with manure?

Take me through the highlights of your day.

Not at all. Well - I suppose I did ask what the highlights of your day are, and you didn't answer it... But you can answer that now.

Until then, you answered a different one. What makes those "times of trouble" come?

what ya mean highlight? like sweet good moments?

wow! dos the rest of the world have such things every day...?wow! ;D

i would probably say it depends a lot on my mood, it can be from a hard sugya i got the solution, or to see my kids, my wife, and sometimes non of that will help...

"what makes those trouble come?"

well, they come with no invitation, but again the heavy kind i dont have for a while, only the small ones, but still its not honey....

my biggest problem now is the porn (is it big or small ???)

Not everyone, but most people have things that they look forward to. Sometimes those things look wonderful, and sometimes they don't even register on the "excitement" scale, depending on how we see ourselves and the world that day.

You are alarmingly normal and human, you know.

Did you know?

my biggest problem now is the porn (is it big or small ???)

Why is that the biggest problem of all of them?
