"impossible to meet with jews where i live"..... ???????

Translation:

I live in a remote part of the world, with only a small community, which is very conservative. It would be worse than death to admit this problem within such a small community, and I do not have the trust that my wife/Rabbi/father/father-in-law would not find out.

You know - like the teenage girl who gets pregnant in small-town (Bible Belt) America, and can't let anyone know, so she tries "home remedies" for abortions... None of which work, until the Well... We just read on Shabbos of the "Shabbos wood chopper".. See Tosfos. "He was m'chalel Shabbos on purpose in public so the yidden will really see how real the Torah is with its response"..

He was moser nefesh to be guilty to m'kadesh Shem Shamayim.

I believe only good would come out of telling a Rabbi.

With sincerity, I, and every other SA'er I've known has only seen 'good' from disclosure.. (And one that does work alerts everyone in a messy and embarrassing way anyway. And, I don't believe anyone will stone him if done with a sincere desire for teshuva :-)) ..

This week is blessed from the Shabbos kria.. He has heavenly help already!

Nice try. ;D

This time write it on a piece of paper, not on a computer. Don't be afraid of your shadow - it is already bigger than you know. Start from the first time you ever met lust and then describe when it became a habit for you as a bochur and what you did different with it for the years till you got married - did it progress at all, or stay the same exactly? - and how often you did those behaviors back then, then what happened after you got married, and when you started to do the exact kind of acting out stuff you are doing now. How often you do it now.

Hatzlocha. Don't play with me.

Yoish...

Is there a smiley icon for "biting my nails like a nervous wreck after being warned by moderator"?

dov -you sent shivers up my spine (and you weren't even talking to me!)

La'ag - Please write it on paper, and in whatever language you want - yiddish, L'Kodesh, english, whatever - but please write it with your own hand. It works better that way.

Seriously. Don't do this halfway - it is way too important. This isn't just another sugyah....this sugyah is you and your quality of life. There is only one such sugyah in your lifetime. Only one.
