

Great Sefer - Esa Einay

As hashgacha would have it just after my wife found out about my problem, a friend recommended a sefer to me out of the blue. It's called Esa Einay. A lot of the stuff that I have read here, I saw in this sefer first. It is a very positive sefer with good eitzos.

Someone in Passaic wrote it. I am including an image of the front cover and inside page.

Windows of the Soul is in english and it is a great book. you can buy a hardcover copy in stores or online or you can download a pdf version on the GYE homepage.

It is only in hebrew to my knowledge. I found it way before I found this site. I found a lot of stuff on this site that I had seen in this sefer. I just thought some ppl might like a hebrew sefer that deals with this stuff. One of the pages I scanned has the phone number of the author (i assume). I never called it, but it's there is someone wants it.
