

How to spend Bein-Hazmanim

Posted by JustKeepGoing - 04 Jul 2012 04:09

With Bein hazmanim coming up I wanted to start this thread where the idea is to have a ginourmous list of things to keep yourself occupied. Its really for more than bein-hazmanim any time you aren't learning and have time to burn, with nothing to do..... Well that isn't good

So here's some to start it off

- woodworking
- get a job
- camping/fishing
- ride a bike
- Read gye
- learn an instrument
- go swimming
- walk/excercise
- learn(.....duh)
- discover the truth about bigfoot and other related myths
- _____
- write a book
- burn a book
- rip a yellowpages book, or learn how
