

Something to think about

Posted by LEARNING - 14 Nov 2013 08:38

I was in the shower the other day. I have ahd my problems in the shower, and I still need to be extremely cautious in there. Anyways, I had a feeling (not an urge) that maybe I could fall. You know. That initial thought comes out of nowhere and is so dangerous.

But I got kind of lucky!

Here's what I thought:

"Why should I let out my seed now? I need to save it for a worthy moment." Honestly, think of what you are throwing down the drain! The seed you throw away could be someone great. It just isn't fair to throw away a potential life. Additionally, Every time that one resists the urge, that seed has so much more zchus and potential!

Just a thought.

I have not really thought about it that way before. That I am throwing away something valuable. Thanks for the reminder.
