

Too cool for Playschool

I can't believe I fell into this ridiculous habit for so many years...

My addiction to age play and being dominated is simply pathetic!

I am a really cool guy! Why was I so addicted to fantasizing myself being dominated and humiliated?

That's ridiculous! I can't believe it took me so long to realize just how pathetic my addiction really is.

Thinking about it this way really put it into perspective for me and helped me overcome it.

Also, when I flex my muscles () it helps me overcome it on a physical level as well.

I can really relate, the more we are sober the clearer the reality that when acting out we are flipping out and being pathetic filthy creatures.

Rabbi Noach Weinberg zt"l the late Rosh Yeshiva and founder of Aish Hatorah used to say that sin is "temporary insanity". I am afraid to know what he'd say of S___ addictive practices.

But how about dwelling on the bright side: How sweet do the days of sobriety and freedom feel?

It's a sign of a strong personality.

Use it for good things.

Very kind of you

I also think that some have a more upbeat personality naturally. Or they had a supportive upbringing so they are more prone to both appreciate the goodness in the present status and
