

Slogans and Sayings

Posted by Mesayin - 11 Feb 2016 21:03

There is an idea that I read from Rabbi Noach Weinberg ZATZA"L to keep saying slogans to yourself, it's a short message that is easy to remember.

Of course this is already an old idea, there are tzadikim of the past who have made a bunch of slogans.

Also, a slogan is just a short message of a long thing you have already learnt, if it is just a nice message with no meaning to the one that is saying it, then it will just fly away from the mind like a fleeting shadow.

So if anyone has any good slogans and saying, do us a favor and post them here, these things are extremely useful.

Let us begin with one that is tzigepahst for GYE:

"No situation can be bad enough that a little lusting won't make it even worse". - Page 14 of the GYE handbook, bsheim SA

Our life does not better by chance, it gets better by change, and the choice factor, is to set the will in a right direction, and keep moving toward it.
