Dear Abba

Thank you for giving me a sober 24hrs , thank you for showing me rock bottom so I could find you again, thank you for giving me the exact amount of strength to deal with the days trials . I know ive been away too long but abba im back- not because i dont want to emotionally die, but because I WANT TO LIVE..... . I missed you so much.

I hope for this to be the first of a long-lasting correspondence

Al

He let me cross lines that i never in my life thought i would and it awoke an urge inside me to work the program and stay sober with his help
