

Kumzitz in the Holy Land

Posted by imtrying25 - 08 Dec 2009 16:48

We , imtrying25 and Uri, are trying to organize a kumzitz for all us Holylanders. I would of posted in annoucments but its locked. Ok im thinking next thursday night at around 6. Of course Uri will be there with his guitar to entertain us. Oh and by the way Guard and Mom are invited too. So if your interested please post here. Although we dont need a big crowd we still have to i'm so jel.

Sorry sister.

Just buy a plane ticket, dress up like a guy, and then you can come.

Not home this evening unfortunately.

Ok so the second kumzitz has come to an end. Thank you to all those that attended.
But with you all in spirit
Eye-nonymous, Mom, imtrying25, Uri, Loi-misyaoish, sturggle, and the chashuveh chashuveh Battleworn. We really appreciated it. We learnt so much from you Rebbe and we hope this is only the beginning of many good things to come. It was really beautiful. It was hard to say goodbye to Uri, but thats the way of life. All good things come to an end. We will miss you Uri.

We would also like to take this oppurtunity to thank our esteemed moderator Kedusha for calling in and sharing some very special thoughts with us. Thank you.

And last but not least, yes we do have a recording, but for Uris stomachs sake we had to part
But we will get it to you all as soon as possible.

Whenever possible, we all want that recording!

It's funny, i was listening to the last recording as i was driving, and I wondered what would happen if I picked someone up (sometimes I pick up people waiting for buses), and they got in and said, "hey, that's Uri's song!"

My take about last night.

Absolutely beautiful!

Thank you IT25 again for hosting a very special evening.

I found it was even better than the first one. Less awkward since most of us had already met each other.

Nice to see everyone, and to meet Loi Tisyaaish for the first time.

Very special for Kedusha to call in (thanks!)

I think the highlight was having Battleworn come. He added a sense of kedusha and leadership to the gathering. His divrei Torah were out of this world!

Guys who are in Israel and didn't come, you missed out big time. It was such a special evening; I can't stop thinking about it. The Torah, the singing (can't wait to hear the MP3!), the shmoozing. This wasn't about a bunch of lust addicts getting together, this was the connecting of 7 beautiful neshamot with one common goal giving each other chizuk just from the fact that we are going through this together and keep on trucking! Of course the fact that this gives us the opportunity to turn virtual relationships into real relationships is priceless.

I feel so lucky to have the zchus to be invited and have attended this, and I hope we do it again soon. I already suggested that at the latest, we do it again when Eye reaches 90 days (a month from now), if not sooner.

Again, to the super 7, thank you all for an absolutely beautiful and spiritual evening.
