

GYE - Guard Your Eyes

Generated: 11 April, 2025, 06:03

Taking on for someone else.
Posted by Ezy - 02 May 2023 11:36

I have found taking on a day of the week in the merit of someone I knew who died to work however and I have found it hard to really replicate this. I have tried a few times with some success nothing that's lasted as long as the first person I took it on for...

=====
=====

Re: Taking on for someone else.
Posted by Heshemechad - 02 May 2023 12:06

I don't have any advice because for you because I'm not an expert and new to this forum thing. You seem to be trying hard and really trying to make a big effort! One day your challenge will be behind you betrat Hashem!

=====
=====

Re: Taking on for someone else.
Posted by ?????? ?????? - 02 May 2023 15:54

Interesting idea, thanks for sharing. I think at some point it may not be enough to do it for someone else, even for Hashem. I think we may need to do it for ourselves, which, if it works, is better for everyone else.

=====
=====

Re: Taking on for someone else.
Posted by retrych - 02 May 2023 16:58

Want to try a different zechus? For the zechus of X who is struggling with Y, even for the general success of the klall in shemiras einayim or something else

=====
=====