

What would the Baal H'Tanya tell us?

Posted by yosefms - 09 Jun 2025 09:10

Hi fellow Tzadikim,

I decided to start a new post with a new idea.

Imagine if we are dealing with an urge and suddenly a great tzadik came out of nowhere and just blasted us with chizzuk based on their seforim and unique way of serving Hashem to help us through.

I decided to start with the Baal H'Tanya, but feel free to add on or make your own ones... who knows maybe it will become a series. Your job is to be a Beinoni, Not a Tzaddik!

You're not looking to kill the yetzer hora.

The goal is to stand strong in the fight — every time.

The struggle itself is what gives Hashem nachas ruach from me.

The fact that I'm still fighting means I'm winning. "A beinoni is judged every moment. The victory is in the action, not the thought." (Tanya, Perek 12)

The nefesh habehamis is talking. I don't have to obey it!

????? ?????????? ?????????? ?????????? ?????????? ??????????

be grateful for urges! not looking is actually a mitzvah every time the test comes up!!

You can quote the Tanya at the end of Perek 14 too.
