

Tehillim/Daven for me!!

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 06 Sep 2009 01:20

Ok so a couple of things.

First of all,I think we should all accept to say a perek of tehillim at least every day for the GYE family.

Many of us have a list of the people who frequent the forum and that is great,but whoever does not just try also to say just one perek a day for the family.

I further think that it would be great if we'd say the same perek together.It would really unify us and remind us that we are not alone

Sunday, the 17th of elul,september 6th we will be saying the first mizmor "Ashrei Haish".

That is the first thing.

The second thing is that people who are going through a tough nisayon that day can request that we daven for them special and I think that will give us an extra boost as we feel that everyone is really behind us.

This is different from the "Im about to fall" thread.this is more like im going through a very tough nisayon/time.please daven for me!

So that's the second purpose of this thread.

Sound good?

I replied "yes" to this pole. Is there a set time that we are all saying a specific perek of tehillim together? (I had that idea a while ago). If so whena nd which one and if not then what was that pole for?

This is a very short perek today,so I will just focus on one idea that has stuck out to me over the past 2 days.

Dovid Hamelech speaks often in communal form("save us" "heal us").

And that is how we daven for the most part.

But sometimes,it is important for one to pray in more intimate terms.

Hashem! Help me!

I love you!

Come closer to me!

Forgive me!

A quote from Dov in an email exchange with him:

"I never did/do any of the steps perfectly. I don't trust G-d perfectly. But I learn how to trust Him a bit, by doing it in my own imperfect way"

You can keep your screen name, but I wish we could revive the OP of this thread! Because he was a special neshama that took us along with him on a rollercoaster of dizzying heights and rather terrifying dives and falls.

Alas it is not to be.

But let it me known Uri, wherever you are, you are not forgotten.

So are we saying the same kapitel every day, or going through the entire sefer one by one?
