

Tehillim/Daven for me!!

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 06 Sep 2009 01:20

Ok so a couple of things.

First of all,I think we should all accept to say a perek of tehillim at least every day for the GYE family.

Many of us have a list of the people who frequent the forum and that is great,but whoever does not just try also to say just one perek a day for the family.

I further think that it would be great if we'd say the same perek together.It would really unify us and remind us that we are not alone

Sunday, the 17th of elul,september 6th we will be saying the first mizmor "Ashrei Haish".

That is the first thing.

The second thing is that people who are going through a tough nisayon that day can request that we daven for them special and I think that will give us an extra boost as we feel that everyone is really behind us.

This is different from the "Im about to fall" thread.this is more like im going through a very tough nisayon/time.please daven for me!

So that's the second purpose of this thread.

Sound good?

That the Avenger of blood has remembered them,He has not forgotten the cry of the humble.
For the pauper shall not be forgotten eternally,nor the hope of the afflicted forever perish.
Hashem will be a fortress for the oppressed,a fortress in times of distress.

Please ignore my bad voice,chevre.

Listen to the song a few times and try singing it.

The tune is good.

But my voice is off,as i am a shtickle sick.

Hear the words.

They are very powerful.

Today,Tuesday,Yom Shlishi,we will be reciting perek yud (10)-Lama Hashem Ta'amod Berachok

There is a very interesting them to this kapitel.

Dovid starts off pretty desperate:

"Why,Hashem,do You stand so far,do You conceal Yourself in times of distess?"

and more..

"He(the enemy) waits in ambush near open cities,in hidden places he murders the innocent,his eyes spy on the helpless."

"He lowers himself and crouches,and the helpless fall prey to his mighty limbs."

and at the end,Dovid explains the truth..

"But You do see!For you observe the mischeif and the outrage,to give out punishment is in Your power,the helpless rely upon You,the orphan-You were the helper."

"Hashem is King forever and ever,when the nations have perished from the earth."

I dont get it.Is that the answer?

Why doesn't Hashem notice us in times of distress?Because He does.I am a shtickle confused.

After a little analyzation maybe one can say that the question is like so...

I'm in such pain.Where is G-d?!I don't see Him!

And the answer is:

Hashem is always there.He was always there,and He will always be there.And because He has no concept of time,everything is laid out clearly to Him.So it might seem at times that bad things are happening,but we cannot see the larger picture.Really,it is all leading up to the rasha's doom,and our salvation.We must be patient.

See my thread for a mashal along these lines...

p.s. btw it's ok to say the daily kapitel over a few times.i often find myself saying it like 20 times throughout the day.There's a special koach to it as it a public tefilla of the day.

Sorry guys that i havent posted earlier.

ive been in bed,pretty sick.

So yea...

Today, Wednesday, we'll be saying together perek 11.

Sometimes, on the surface, it may look as though there is no divine providence.

The wicked taunt us "Where is your god now?"

How come you guys are getting thrown around?

But we know Hashem watches every single thing that happens in this world, and guides every event as a chessmaster does his table.

"His eyes watch, His eyelids scrutinize man."

"Hashem examines the righteous one, but the wicked and lover of violence He despises."

Davka because Hashem loves us does He chastise us, in order to purify us.

Rav Hirsch comments on this pasuk:

Hashem tests the righteous man's constancy and true joy in doing what is right.

If righteous living would automatically lead to immediate reward and sinfulness to immediate punishment, then selfishness - and not the exercise of free will in the performance of G-d's will - would be the motivation for man's actions. Therefore, a righteous man's sufferings are actually proof of G-d's love and interest in his moral improvement and well-being. (i.e. because He wants to perfect our hearts).

Guys, this fight of ours is among the hardest ones out there.

But davka because of the pain, we have witnessed so many people becoming so real and sincere and loving in their relationship with their Tatte in Shamayim.

If this is not an expression of Hashem's love for us and His desire for us to come closer to Him, what is?

we will iy'h be saying perek yud bais (12).

What an awesome psalm!!(u cant say a sentence like that in person.sounds really weird)

Ill quote out of the heading of this chapter in my sefer:

Only God protects and saves.People who profess friendship and loyalty are often traitorous,but Divine assurances are pure and enduring.

Today,Thursday,with 2 days left till Rosh Hashana

I could not have said it better.

Every line in this perek is gold.

(every perek of course,but this one especially gleams to me)

"Smooth talk,with an insincere heart"

"The tongue which speaks boastfully,those who have said "because of our tongues we shall prevail".

They are constantly trying to sell us their disgusting merchandise.

PORN

And they make it all glittery and nice.

Beautiful women

Escort

Escort??

Come to our site,its exactly what you need

FREE

Trust Me

This way please....

Credit card please....

Sex is a business.

One of the biggest businesses in the world.

There are millions of thriving conniving lying salesmen who don't care at all about the world's morality going down the drain but are doing their best to take us all down with sweet talk and glittering lights.

Is this what sex has come to?

Money?

THE FIRST MITZVA IN THE HEILEGE TORAH!!!!

We must see past their disgusting sweet talk because they are selling and making so low one of the highest things in the world!!!!

UCH!!

I HATE THEM!!!!!!

(i had to make a separation before i present The King's side)

But Hashem is emes.

Everything He ever said is EMES.

We can trust Him.

He told us to.

So let's do.

"The words of Hashem are pure;like purified silver,clear to the world,refined seven times."

and always always always remember guys:

"You,Hashem,will guard them(the sincere ones).You will preserve each one forever from such a generation in which the wicked walk on every side(our generation),when baseness is exalted is exalted among the sons of men."

Guys,Hashem desires the heart...

That's all He wants..

Lets try to be sincere this Rosh Hashana ha'l

-uri

p.s. sorry for the rant

Im sorry i forgot to post in this thread earlier.I sort of spaced out on it.R'H threw me off.

If i ever forget to post the days tehillim theres a pretty easy way to figure out where were at..

Just look at what we did yesterday and add one....

Back to business:

Shana tova everyone
Today (Monday) was/is perek 16,Michtam LeDovid...

The mizmor is about trusting in Hashem and thanking Him for being One to trust.

What is trust?

You trust when you know someone comes through time and time again.

And you trust when you know that person has your best interests in mind,and would do all they are capable of doing.

I can tell you from today till tommorow how much Hashem loves you.

But to really understand,you must look for His hugs.

If you look at your day carefully you will see 100s of times that Hashem orchestrated things to benefit you and save you and make your life easier.

If you put time in looking for these hugs,trust will come easily in the end.

I would suggest looking for one hug a day in the begining and moving up to two hugs.

If your Hebrew is not so sharp,its really worthwhile to read through this one in artscroll

In fact,im gonna start a thread

Kol tuv-uri

I would quote key pesukim but they are all so gevaldig
