

FEEL THE HUGS!!!

Posted by jerusalemsexaddict - 21 Sep 2009 18:08

Possibly flakiest thread in GYE's history.....

Listen,life is scary.

All of us have a lack of trust.

In the world.

In Hashem.

In ourselves.

That's why this thread is gonna change all that.

Hashem runs the world.

I know what you're all saying....

"O man.Another bitachon shmuz!"

NO!

This is the HASHEM LOVES US corner!!

Here we will come each day and share or at least acknowledge one hug that Hashem gave us that day.

And when we all feel ready,we can move up to two.

And three.

And a million.

Could be big hugs.

Small hugs.

Fat hugs.

Thin hugs.

They're all good.

The point is to just spot it and feel it!!

This is a big step in our recovery chevra!!

Who's in?

I found another beautiful hug today that was always there..

Every time i have a fall,i come out with beautiful insights afterwards that really help me in my struggle.

It feels like Hashem felt bad that He had to give me that fall,so He gives me some comfort hugs.

Thanks Tatte
Lotsa hugs over YOm Tov.

My house was really a pathetic looking place erev Yom Tov:

My married daughter (over for the week) was sick with a stomach bug

I was bedbound with the same yucky bug

My husband was in the emergency room with my son checking out a possible serious complication of Step throat and a few others were roaming around groaning about sore heads, stomachs or whatevers.

...and nothing was cooked for YM, and no was up to doing it!

Surprise surprise, my 17 yr old tzaddik, and my older-than-17-yr-old son-in-law took over the kitchen, cooked up a storm and even cleaned up after themselves! HUG HUG HUG

Honestly, I really had been panicking wondering what would be about food for Hoshana Raba and Shabbos. If they hadnt come through, we really would have been stuck big time!

And after Hashem showed me that if He wants, He can even get the cooking done(!), he sent my son home with nothing more than regular Strep(BH antibiotics!), sent a refuah sheleima to everyone, and all is well in the 7up house!

HUG!

More hugs coz this really aught to be the most active thread on the forum!

Had an amazing guest with us all Sukkos who helped make this Sukkos one of the most

My kids adored him, which means they were happy - read "no arguing"

My husband enjoyed his company - read "happy hubby"

and even our friends and neighbors liked him - read "leibedik sing-alongs!"

I miss Sukkos already :-\

(jealous son)

who is this mystery guest that has you all excited??

He must've been really something.

Probably a very special person.

Did he read books to your kids and play guitar for everyone in the succah??

Cause that's my specialty!

I have a feeling that Uri and my guest would either be best friends, or hate each other. May depend on the moment even...

I'm reserving you guys for next year

Uri, next year we hope to serve karbonos instead of cholent. Hope that wont upset your poll....

Thanks for the reply Sturggle.

You are so right, Sukkos can always be with us. It really is a way of mind.

How comforting to always be cacooned and safe in Hashems Sukkah.

Where are all the hugs?

This thread keeps on falling back?

WOW
Ok, it's not like I am posting here everyday either... :-[

Either way, I just got a HUG!

I do not want to go into details for various reasons,

but I wanted to take care of some monetary issue and I needed to speak to someone in order to do so,

but I wasn't sure what number to call and I knew that I would receive a call from him/them eventually...

So, I know it was going to happen anyway,

but I just got the phone call and b'ezras Hashem

the issue is, or will shortly be, taken care of,

and I wanted to be makir toda here.

I think b'chlal, even if there is a natural occurrence or something that we might have expected

(Dov, Mom, what was that about expectations again?),

it is still a HUG when it happens.

How totally embarrassing that I had to search back 2 whole pages to find the HUGS thread!

Busha :-[

Wake up and open your eyes GYE before you trip over that huge hug lying on the ground in
